

Table of Contents

Case Scenarios	xi
About the Editor	xiii
Chapter Authors	xv
Acknowledgments	xix
Introduction	xxi
Part I: Conceptual Foundations
Chapter 1: Toward Multiculturalism Competence: A Practical Model for Implementation in the Schools Doris Wright Carroll, PhD	1
Chapter 2: Increasing Cultural Literacy: Historical Perspectives and Cultural Characteristics of Minority Groups Elizabeth D. Palacios, PhD, LSSP, LPC; and Pamala Trivedi, MA, MEd, NCSP	17
Chapter 3: Social Justice and School Mental Health: Evolution and Implications for Practice David Shriberg, PhD	49
Chapter 4: Understanding Privilege in America Antoinette Halsell Miranda, PhD, NCSP; Amy Boland, MA; and Megan Hemmeler, MA	67
Chapter 5: Pathways on a Journey of Getting It : Multicultural Competence Training and Continuing Professional Development Tonika Duren Green, PhD; Valerie J. Cook-Morales, PhD; Carol Robinson-Zañartu, PhD; and Colette L. Ingraham, PhD, NCSP	83

Part II: Practical Applications

Chapter 6: Multicultural Practices and Response to Intervention 117
Deborah Peek Crockett, PhD, NCSP; and Julie Esparza Brown, EdD

Chapter 7: A Comprehensive, Multidimensional Approach to Assessment of Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students 139
Matthew Y. Lau, PhD, NCSP; and Lionel A. Blatchley, PhD, LP

Chapter 8: Multicultural Considerations in School Consultation 173
Kimberly Booker, PhD, LSSP

Chapter 9: Counseling With Multicultural Intentionality: The Process of Counseling and Integrating Client Cultural Variables 191
Janine M. Jones, PhD, NCSP

Chapter 10: Multicultural Issues in Research: Practical Implications for School Psychologists 215
Trista M. Huckleberry, PhD

Resources 227
Deborah Peek Crockett, PhD, NCSP

Index 235